

This session looks at the various challenges associated with working with, and leading virtual teams which are becoming more and more commonplace in the modern working environment. By using a combination of interactive tools through the session, participants learn how to lead, motivate and use technology in the right way when working in the modern work environment.

Managing virtual teams

objectives

to agree on a definition of what a virtual team is

look for three strategies for leading virtual teams to investigate the role technology plays in leading virtual teams

look at ideas for motivating a virtual team

Email: training@kfas.org.kw

Date of Program: June 17, 2020

Participant Profile:

Experienced managers, leaders, and project managers who are currently leading virtual teams and are seeking to enhance their overall performance as virtual leaders, as well as those who will be moving into a virtual leadership role in the future. It is also for those team leaders and manager who have had to, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, resort to online collaborations with their teams and team members who have had to switch to online platforms.

Managing virtual teams

